LOCAL MATTERS.

TUESDAY, November 5, 1878

KALAMAZOO is a commercial and manufacturing city of 12,000 inhabitants, the largest city in the country, and is located midway of the Michigan Central Railroad. In addition to the Michigan Central Railroad, the city is served by the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad, and the large factories and the fine view from surrounding hills.

The DAILY KALAMAZOO is the only Kalamazoo paper having a large circulation. It is published every day except Sunday, at 10 cents per copy.

Orders at this office, or address Kalamazoo Publishing Company.

Meteorological.

The following are the meteorological observations made at the Asylum for the Insane, for the 24 hours ending at seven o'clock this morning and reported expressly for the DAILY KALAMAZOO.

7 A. M. 29.41 27 SE Clear

9 P. M. 29.39 30 SE do

Max. Therm. 44. Min. Therm. 20.

It will be remembered that during certain conditions of the atmosphere there is a difference of several degrees between the temperature here in the city and the temperature of the place. Thus, in extreme warm weather, it is five or six degrees warm here than there. In extreme cold weather when there is no wind, it is five or six degrees colder here than there.

NOTES.

—Election news will be received and read to-night at the Burdick House.

—The reader will find the proceedings of the board of trustees last evening quite interesting.

—Several plank are out in the sidewalks on our most public thoroughfares, dangering life and limb.

—The village has some nice lots for sale on Jasper street. See Trustee Wick's.

They will be sold cheap if bought soon.

—The ladies of the Unitarian Society will meet with Mrs. Jannasch-Thorndyke, at 65 Main street (up stairs) on Thursday evening, November 7.

—Trustee Revena reported last night that the superintendent of the L. S. & A. M. S. R.

has had a new way of carrying off the water in places where complaint had been made.

—Keep in mind the interesting meetings of the Woman's Board of the Interior which begin at the Congregational church tomorrow morning. We repeat the programme to-day.

—The handsome face of Bob Ingersoll was presented to the Kalamazooans by F.

B. Whipple, the bill poster, this morning.

It is an excellent likeness. Mr. Ingersoll is expected here in person, Nov. 12th.

—A team belonging to Clifford, of Oak temo, and driven by his hired man, took flight at the body of a dead horse that crossed the road near Stevens' corner last evening, and ran away, and considerably damaged the buggy.

—Some philosophy has said that one can't move a step without meeting a duty.

UNION HALL.

One Hundred and Fourteenth Canpaiga Speech of Hon. J. C. Burrows —A Commencement will be held at the Union Hall last evening. It was attended by a large audience from the first, which grew to a hall-full before the speeches had progressed far. After music by the Pomeroy Commandery band Col.

Phillips introduced Hon. J. C. Burrows, who delivered the 144th speech of his candidate in this campaign, giving an address of perhaps 40 minutes to his home supporters and townsmen.

After reviewing the positions taken by the various antagonistic wings of the national greenback party and elucidating the utter variance of their "principles" with the facts and deductions which experience has compelled all mankind to adopt, he paid his attention to some of the present political developments in the district, among them the Niles conference. There was no trouble about hitching up the team on the other two congressional tickets; the only difficulty was to find out which wagon would hold the most, and who was to be the driver, and the plan seemed to have been broken down because the prices named would be too great for the return either way. But, joking aside, the effort of the St. Joseph county green-backers to buy their way into power was an infamous prostitution of means noninally gathered together in support of political principles. It is an attempt that is false to the public interest, which would meet its just reward when crushed out by Mr. Burrows made many telling points and was repeatedly applauded.

In the midst of the succeeding speech by Col. Gibson, Col. Phillips stepped to the front of the platform and announced what, as far as could be seen from the fact itself, was the fulfillment of a suggestion from Mr. Burrows that the voters of the fourth district might even yet find that the greenback and democratic tickets had coalesced on congressmen—namely, the fact that Mr. Sherwood was even then one of the speakers before the gathering gotten up in the interest of the democratic campaign. The announcement was made the occasion of a forcible appeal by the general, to stamp out all trafficking and sale between organizations that professed to be established in support of principle; to stamp out all barter in men's political beliefs as a man would the viper crawling into the cradle of his child.

The speech by Gen. W. H. Gibson of Ohio, which followed that of Mr. Burrows, held the wrath attention of the audience til nearly eleven o'clock, now holding the force of his logic, the vivid character of his descriptions, the eloquence with which he put the financial question to men on their patriotism, and again convincing the entire body with laughter and applause. One of his points was aimed at the cry sometimes raised during the campaign that the legislation of the country was designed to help one class against another, that it was to sustain the rich against the poor. This was now, he said,
