TANNER'S FORTY DAY FAST.

The success of Dr. Tanner's experi-The success of Dr. Tamer's experiment in going 40 days without food, and for 12 days of the time without water excepting four ounces on the eighth day, adds another to the marvelous feats of physical possibility of the past few years. The walking manua, the swimming contests, the fast time developed on the race track all have embraced events.

weeks. It requires a degree of self-control, discipline and mettle, which is rarely found in the human constitution. Increasing recurrence of nausea and retching during the latter portion of the fast and the vomiting of secretions which contribute normally to the nutrition of the system show a physical strain that would have been fatal to the average of mankind. This is aside from the severe trial of the doctor's pertinacity in holding on to his purpose when he had it in his power to end his agony at any time by ending his fast. His own faith in his capability for undergoing an ordeal of the kind is shown in his offering to go 30 days without either food or water, which is much severer for the stomach than the test he has just made.

Dr. Tanner has disappointed the expectations of the physicians quite as uch by his experience in returning to ood as by his ability to do without it. Severe privation of that kind has so of-ten been followed by death when the organs of digestion were again set at work that the doctor's return to food has been regarded as his most critical and dangerous time. The stomach, in well lost the power to continue its functions. favorable symptoms seem to have been

New York was marked by the same great crowds at all the railway stations torchlight processions and enthusiastic cheering waited for him with as much patience as by day-light. Edwin Clay of Pugwash, Nova Scotia, writes Edwin Clay of Pugwash, Nova Scotia, writes as follows:

MR. James I. Fellows, Sir:
Having, while at your establishment carefully examined your prescriptions, and the method of preparing your Compound Syrup of rivial in my practice. For the last twelve months I have done so and find that in incipient consumption and other diseases of the throat and lungs, it has done wonders. In restoring persons suffering from the effects of diphtheria, and the cough following typhoid fever, prevalent in this region, it is the best remedial agent I have ever used. But for persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the brain and nervous system, from long-continued study or teaching, or in those cases of extreme exhausting the first of the following typhoid fever, prevalent in this region, it is the best remedial agent I have ever used. But for persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the brain and nervous system, from long-continued study or teaching, or in those cases of extreme exhausting the first of the change hands to save it from corrupt management, could only be strong as he advanced specific instances to substantiate his assumption. In fact the point is too weak to merit attention. The affairs of the American government were never handled with so great freedom from corrupt use of public funds and official power as now; and furthermore there was never a time when the country was so badly off in the

HE REMAINS A DEMOCRAT.

fluence as that of last spring, containing his bid for the democratic nomination. The senator seems to have been under something on the subject he would put | Wood. the country to painful uncertainty about his political leanings this year-his placing his vote in the senate at the disposal of the democratic party and his L. Perhaps Judge Davis is right. His course and Darnton, 8th Chas. McNeil. his reasons must have a deciding influence on the great body of Americans, and it is a public boon that his position has not longer been withheld.

The facts are that Senator Davis will support Hancock. He does not say that he will "go over" to Hancock. It is probably a relief to one of so extensive probably a relief to one of so extensive ner, J. Lochner, C L. Mitchell, J. avoirdupois to be already there, as it Mansfield, E. Montgomery, E. He calls attention though to what he desires shall be accepted as his reasons for remaining democratic. They are four: that Hancock's election would do away with sectionalism; that his order No. 40 is a whole record, and we may also suppose a whole experience, in statesmanship; that his letter to Gen. Sherman is one of the wisest utterances of the time and that the length of time the republican party has been in power makes it necessary that the democratic party should be put in power awhile.

The chief points are the first and last. He would have a non-sectional union, of the kind that the democratic party would bring about, with the nation subservient to the states; the sovereign national guarantee of free and equal elections, the land over, abolished; the rights in the national laws, whether fundamental or statutory, which represent the triumph of the union cause, the granting of citizenship to the liberated working Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypc- people and the defense of the national credit "wiped out," to use the choice but expressive language of the man who Mitchell; 7th, Augustus Golden. made known the democratic programme. to its peculiar property of restoring the wasted tissues of the body to their original firmness and vigor. OPINION OF THE CLERGY. Simmons' Liver Regulator is certainly a specific for that class of complaints which it claims to cure. If any of our fellow beings are suffering from hepatic disorders and have doubts in relation to the efficacy of this popular preparation, we can only offer them the simple and caudid argument of Phillip. simple and candid argument of Phillip to Nathaniel, "Come and see" Try the proposed remedy and then you can judge for yourselves.—Rev. > TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER

REGULATOR.

The symptoms of liver complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Some-times the pain is in the shoulder and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach mistaken for Theumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general costive, sometimes altering with lax. The head is troubled with pain and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them, but the liver is generally the them, but the liver is generally the organ most involved.

The Use of Salt in a Dry Time.

A correspondent in the Chicago Times gives the following account of his experience with the use of salt in the garden and with the Victorian Chicago Times den and orchard. Young fruit trees can to stand. After trees are set I continue Friday a party from Carrollton went in- to sow a pint of salt around each tree to the woods to gather berries. When they every year. I set 25 trees in sandy soil gathered for the return trip, Mrs. Esther for each one of seven years, and only Carbin and a young German girl were succeeded in getting one to live, and missing—probably lost in the woods, that only produced twigs a few inches Search was kept up till late at night in long in nine years. Last spring I sowed a pint of salt around it, and limbs grew from three to three and a half feet long. W. S. Benham, a Grand Haven editor, was knocked down by a chap named Worms because the editor called him a putting a pint of salt in the dirt used for filling, and then sowed a pint more on the surface after each tree was set. In 1878 I put half a barrel of it nearly every day, and still the plants brine and half a bushel of salt on the ground, and then turned it under. The consequence was that the plants were of extraordinarily large size and the flowers of great beauty. It was not necessary to water the garden, which was greatly admired by all who saw it. The flowers were so large that they appeared to be of different varieties from those grown on land that was not salt-

> I had some potatoes growing from seed that wilted down as soon as the weather became very hot. I applied salt to the surface of the soil till it was white. The vines took a vigorous start, grew to the length of three feet, blossomed, and produced tubers from the size of hen's eggs to that of goose eggs. My soil is chiefly sand, but I believe that salt is highly beneficial to clay or common prairie soil.

AUNT HANNAH'S ADVICE.

And you have quarreled with David? And hide it as well as you can.

I know at this moment your thinking
That he is a horrible man. He has no regard for your feelings, He loosens his hold on your heart, And each has confessed to the other That both were much better apart.

You think of the days of your courtship, When David was thoughtful and kind, In all your vexations so helpful, To all your follies so blind; And now, o'er the gateway of Eden, The sword of the angel is crossed And you miss all the sweetness and s The joy of a Paradise lost.

You think you have done all your duty, Have prayed and labored in vain, And feel, as a husband, that David Has really no right to complain. But let us sit down in the twilight, And talk o'er the subject awhile, Before you take leave of the meadow, 'Tis well that you pause on the stile

Tis likely that David is fretful,

And careless at times, it is true; His business absorbs him too closely, But is he not working for you? So when he comes home in the evening Quite silent, and thoughtful and queer, Let your heart keep up its singing, And pretend you don't notice, my dear. For just as a scratch on the finger

Will heal if you let it alone, So many a trouble or grievance, That David or you may have known, Would soon have been gone and forgotten And left not a scar on the heart, Had either been fond and forgiving Had you never supposed you could part. Tis your duty to yield, and you know it You will, if you're true to your trust

Your God and your honor demand it, And David is gentle and just. Don't keep any bones of contention Don't hold to this terrible strife, But make him a much better husband, By being a much better wife

MILLITARY MATTERS.

Mr. Frank Bush with praise worthy enterprise has established a telephone connection between the camp and city with terminial offices at the dining hall and Burdick house.

The judges stand was used as a temporary guard house last night.

The 1st detailed guard of the brigade encampment, Lieut, Frank Phillips commanding the entire detail being from Co. C Kalamazoo.

It is estimated that the brigade will number 1,800 men.

The dress parade of the 1st and 2nd regiments attracted much attention last evening. Lieut. Col. Sumner of Kalamazoo, commanding the 2nd. The 3d regiment did not arrive in time to participate in the parade.

Col. I. C. Smith of the 2nd is to-day the officer of the day.

Guard mounting is at 8:00 A. M. Each squad is on duty for 24 hours, being relieved every two hours and being off four. Sam Pierson of Ionia, a well-known

Kalamazoo boy, was a the Burdick over Chas. Parker and the young men in an elegant piece of store furniture. Sergeant Fred Case of Co. C, second regiment to Co. D, Three Rivers, has just been elected second lieutenant of that company. Although no positive orders have been issued regarding the sham battle, it is generally understood that it will take place on Friday. Regiments will appear singly on dress parade and not in brigade and will come out in the order in which they rank, ithe 2d first, 3d second, and 1st last.

The Manistee & Big Rapids companies on the train coming down took a vote which resulted as follows: Garfield and Arthur, 81; Hancock and English 49; Weaver and Chamberlain, 13.

Col. Smith has established a strong line of guards about camp, and Timothy W. has not made any attempt to run the guard. Prof. Gibson guitarist to Co. C furnishes music for the camp and accompaniment for the camp singers.

The headquarters of the Governor, Quartermaster General Saviers, Inspector General Heath have been finely carpeted through the kindness of Messrs. M. Israel & Co.

Little Miss Seven-year-old, whose "big brother" is one of the Kalamazoo guards, now at Camp Chandler, awoke this morning disgusted, to the conviction of rain during encampment week; which disgust progressed in such ratio, as the dressing advanced, as to threaten something more gloomy than even a rainy Coming into the breakfast-room before the family arrived, her mamma found her most dejectedly contemplating the weather from the window. With a carressing salutation her mamma said: "Who has cared for us all so well through the night, my love?"

"The dear Lord," said she, readily and Yes, He kept us safely, and brother and papa, though they are too far away for our care." Then falling into the spirit of Mrs. Browning's sublime poem, recently read, she continued:

"He rules above, He reigns below," "That's so," replied the little one with equal readiness, while a gleam of fun broke through the rueful look she cast at the sprinkled pane, "He rains below sometimes when we don't care to have

The art of advertising is being brought down to a decidedly fine point; and when an agent sends you an inch advertisemeat to insert at your very lowest rates and accompanies it with six inch local notice, which he wants put in for nothing, you can't help but admire his acreage of "cheek," and wish you had a gun that would shoot a hundred miles, miles, and kill the fellow you are thinking of, without taking aim.

New York Tribune: There is no longer any excuse for doubting that the south will be solid for Hancock. The votes will have nothing to do with it, for the count will decide. There will be little bulldozing, and less shooting than ever before; for what is the use of shooting "niggers" when their votes can be thrown out without trouble? The democrats have all the machinery of election, and they will control it to make such majorities as they desire. Indeed, under these circumstances it seems an entire waste of time to hold any election whatever in the south. The election officers might as well meet in advance and decide upon a convenient majority for each state to cast. When they hand in their figures, the "superb soldier" can swell himself up and roll off that platitude, "a full vote, free ballot and a fair count," adding: "The bayonet is not a fit instrument for collecting the votes of freemen; give me the ex-bulldozer in-stead." 'Rah for reconciliation and
